

Dave Reinitz

Bowling for Common Sense!

Stand-Up Comedy

Dave's unique perspective and sarcasm gives us a hilarious hour of stand-up comedy that won't soon be forgotten. Dave will make you laugh and think! He finds the humor wherever common sense is in jeopardy, such as the prescription drug industry, in ordering a simple cup of coffee at Starbucks and in his girlfriend's incomprehensible view of the world. In the tradition of Mort Sahl, George Carlin, and Bill Mahr, comes Dave Reinitz.

Dave Reinitz is originally from Ithaca New York but currently resides in Los Angeles California. The son of a history professor and artist mother, he has been seeking to understand conflict for most of his life. His father passed away when he was only 13, leaving him to experience his teenage years with an all female family, a Mother, two sisters, and the family cat.

Dave graduated from High School as valedictorian! Of course, this sounds much more impressive than it really is. You see, he attended "The Alternative Community School" and never actually received any letter grades, so he was only the valedictorian because he gave the graduation speech. But a fine speech it was! He also went on to study at the State University of New York, Brockport, but found that something else was calling to him. After a few years he got the travel bug and off he went, not on a cruise or vacation, but on a road trip. He bought a 1973-dodge Mobley motor home, and began to travel across the country. The next 4 years were filled with restaurant and bartending jobs, from Cape Cod to Venice Beach. But the fun soon came to an end when the engine in the motor home blew up, and Dave settled in Los Angeles. He found that stand-up comedy was a great way to tell his many stories and express his new found freedom.
